

This year's "Mansfield Writes!" writing workshop was held on Friday, October 29th 2010 at the Mansfield Public Library.

Our annual Mansfield Writes! writers workshop was a great success. Our Panel of authors shared a variety of writing and publishing tips with approximately 90 participants. Fans also had a chance to meet the authors face-to-face during the book signing.

A BIG THANKS to Sunshine Donuts and Pirate Coffee Company for sponsoring the event!!!
